FREE SILVER MEXICO.

A Delightful Climate Where The Sun Shines, The Roses
Bloom.

GREENBACKS BRING TWO FOR ONE.

The Hon. B. F. Beard Writes Entertainingly of His Trip in The Far West.

HOTEL DEL JARDIN, THE GARDEN HOTEL 1ST INDEPENDENCE STREET No. 5—MEXICO, JAN. 24, 1898.—EDITOR BRECKENRIDGE NEWS, CLOVERPORT, KY.—FRIEND JOHN:
—As you requested me to write you while on this trip I will spend a little time in complying with that request as I have no scarcity of time. We procured tickets (Bessie and I) at Louisville for Los Angeles, California and sleeper berths to San Antonio, Texas, left Los Angeles Jan. 13th at 9:25 p. m. on the I. C. road, arrived at New Orleans the next evening about 7:30, crossed the river in a ferry boat, hitched our sleeper on to the Southern Pacific train and got under way again about 9 o'clock.

The route through Texas seems to be very sparsely settled. The land looks to be good, but shows great lack of sufficient rain though I suppose it furnishes good grazing for cattle and the Muskeget trees which produce a kind of bean that answers for food and drink. The trees grow a convenient height for cattle to feed on.

We arrived at San Antonio Jan. 15, at 5 p. m., a city of 60,000 people, stayed all night here, saw the Old Alamo building which has quite a tragic history that it will pay you to look up if you are not familiar with it. We procured tickets here for the City of Mexico on the Mexican National Road, left at 9 a. m. arrived at Laredo at 4 p. m. Failing to get our trunks transferred intime for our train we laid over here twenty-four hours for them. This is a city of 20,000 or 25,000 divided by the Rio Grand river, which is the dividing line between the United States and Mexico called the "Gate City." It is about one-third American and two-thirds Mexican, quite an interesting place on account of its very old Mexican buildings etc. We visited the Southern Methodist Seminary or Mission School here in which Miss Annie Basset and Miss Mary Allen spent some time as teachers. We were very agreeably surprised to find a much larger and better equipped institution than we had any idea of. They have a large compass (I don't know how many acres) beautifully laid off and set in flowers and shrubbery. They have ten large and well furnished buildings—very other schools in different localities in Mexico.

We left here Jan. 17th at 4 p. m. crossed the river where we had to stop to have our baggage overhauled by the officers, which took about an hour. The officers were very polite and pleasant in the performance of their duties. After providing ourselves with some Mexican currency in which exchange we received $2.12 for $1 in greenbacks. We were comfortably settled in the sleeper on the (Narrow-gauge road) and bid adieu to the best country on the globe and started on our way to the City of Mexico.
We made no stop from Laredo to the City. There is nothing of very much interest to note on this run of about a thousand miles. Of course, everything is strange and different from our country but there is a very great sameness. The most of the country on this route looks like a barren desert the land looks dry and parched, the growth cactus and palms principally, the natives as a general thing very poor and half clad. Whilst this is a very old country it seems to be yet in a very crude state. I think there is a fine opening here for investment in manufacturing. One thing greatly favoring this is that this country has a natural protective tariff in the cheap living and consequently cheap labor.

We arrived in the City Jan. 19, 7 a. m. and are pleasantly located in this Hotel del Jardin. We pay $5 a day for a double room and our meals at the (restaurant attached) cost about the same. This seems high but it is Mexican money which is a little less than half of ours.
Whilst this country is free silver it is practically on a gold basis. Mexican money and everything else of value is measured by United States money.
This city has a population of 350,000 and 365 churches, nearly all Catholic.
Have been very busy since our arrival sight seeing in this wonderful city. It would take too much time and too much space in your paper to try to describe in detail what we have seen and we have only spent about half the time we calculated to stay. The most prominent places of interest visited is the Cathedral, the original building is over 300 years old with a great deal of modern improvements added. The architecture inside and out is wonderful. The National Museum in which there is a great display of the handy work of the ancient Aztec race in stone images and other strange things. One very wonderful thing that I may mention is the aerial city. A large square block of stone with a place chiseled out in the center large enough for a person to sit in crop legged where the ancients offering themselves as a sacrifice would sit and have their hearts cut out and given to the God they worship. In here we saw Max-imilian's Carriage of state, the greatest thing I ever saw of the vehicle kind, it has never been used but once since Maximilian's death and that was escorting Gen. Grant on the occasion of his visit here. Went to the art gallery and out to the floating gardens etc, and as we were here to see and learn all we can of the manners and customs of this country we could not afford to leave without witnessing the National entertainment, the bull fight, so we procured tickets at $5 a piece (this being a very renowned fight) and went to see the barbarous amusement, we stayed until there were two horns killed and three bulls done up and some ladies that were with me and myself became disgusted with the exhibition of cruelty and left before it was half over, but I must find a stopping place. The climate here is just delightful, the nights and mornings are cool, but after 9 o'clock you want to hunt the shady side of the street. We will resume our trip to California about the middle of this week. Los Angeles will be our first stop, please send my New to me at that place.

Oh, How Thankful

Pain Was Maddening and Hope Had Been Abandoned—Wonderful Results of Purifying the Blood.

"A very severe pain came in my left knee, which grew worse and worse, and finally a sore broke out above the knee.
It discharged a great deal and the pain from my thigh down was maddening.
Large, hard, purple spots appeared on my leg. I suffered in this way for years, and gave up all hope of ever being cured.
My wife was reading of a case like mine cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, and she advised me to try it. I began taking it and when I had used a few bottles I found relief from my suffering. Oh, how thankful I am for this relief! I am stronger than I have ever been in my life.
I am in the best of health, have a good appetite and am a new man altogether." J. P. MOORE, Lisbon Falls, Maine.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Is the best—in fact the One True Blood Purifier.

Hood's Pills cure all liver ailments.

PELLVILLE.

The wind last week did considerable damage here to trees and fencing.

Hilary Bruner went to Owensboro on business Wednesday of last week.

Robert Creager and wife, of Knottville, visited relatives here last week.

Herbert Bennett, of Central City, who has been visiting relatives returned home last week.

The young people had a nice soiree at Miley Long's Thursday night. Those present say it was a pleasant affair.

The debate here Friday night was well up-to-date. The Herbert brass band was on hand and between speeches made splendid music.

Miss Ida Moseley, of Livermore, and Miss Theresa Moseley, of Owensboro, visited their uncle, Mort Moseley of this place last week.

Misses Ada, Ida and Dollie Jett, who have been teaching in Henderson were expected home Monday. Mrs. Thomas Jett has been dangerously ill but is now much better.

The News of last week was a "thing of beauty and a joy forever," chock full of news and good reading matter. It appears like a wave of prosperity has hit it a jolter and caused it to laugh outright.

Bion Moseley hauled a load of tobacco to Whitesville recently which had been sold for $7, $8 and $1. The buyer began docking and Bion had it reloaded and hauled it home. He says, "no man shall dock my tobacco."

The way we need a few more merchants here is a sin. Only one store and small grocery in a country like this is awful. Some man come and fill one of the many empty store houses here with goods and our word for it he will make money.

Misses Treacy Long, Eula Bristow, Ethel Hunter, Minnie Long, Bertha Brown, Sada Obichain, Katie Alsip, Sue Obichain, and Katie Temple and Messrs Ira Loyd, Henry Skinner, Estell Berry, and Walter Skinner called on Misses Ida and Theresa Moseley Sunday evening.

A splendid social was given by Mrs. S.
Temple Monday night of last week. The youngsters appeared to enjoy themselves as they never did before. Several were present from a distance. Among whom were: Miss Theresa Moseley, of Owensboro, and Miss Ida Moseley, of Livermore.
Messrs. Henry Milligan and Walter Skinner, of Herbert, and Herbert Bennett, of Central City.

The young men of town and surrounding community presented Rev. J. D.
Hocker a valuable overcoat last Sunday as a token of their appreciation of his kindness towards them during the time he has preached here. He was so overcome he could not thank them and just of the pulpit and blessed them in language so kind and sweet that many were made to shed tears. If all preachers would be more sociable with the worldly young men and follow the example of young J. D. Hocker doubtless there would be more good done than there is by the foolishness of preaching.

What pleasure is there in life with a headache, constipation and biliousness?
Thousands experience them who could become perfectly healthy by using Dr.
Witt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills.—Short & Haynes.

Paralytic Stroke.

Dr. O. Pulliam suffered a stroke of paralysis last week and since has been in a dangerous condition, being for some time unable to talk or move. He is slightly improved but remains in a very serious state. Some two years ago he had an attack of paralysis from which he has never fully recovered. The doctor is one of our best citizens, a good man, and we sincerely hope he may yet recover to enjoy the full measure of a ripe old age.—Grayson Gazette.

The diseases cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla are many, because most ailments disappear as soon as the blood is enriched and purified by it.

Here is what Peter Cooper, who died worth many millions, said of a newspaper: "In all the towns where a newspaper is published every man should advertise in it if nothing more than a card stating his name and the business he is in. It does not only pay the advertiser, but it lets the people at a distance know the town in which you reside is a prosperous community of business men. As the seed is sown so the seed reapeneth.
Never pull down your sign while you expect to do business.—Press and Printer.

A Short Sad Story.

A Cold.
Neglect.
Pneumonia.
Grief.

Had Foley's Honey and Tar been used, this story would have had a happier ending.—A. R. Fisher, Cloverport; R. A.
Shellman, Stephensport; Gordon & Haynes, Patesville; E. A. Witt, Hardinaburg.

Another Lay Sermon.

Brother D. says "bear not the yoke with the unbeliever," and claims it to mean where and what christians must do, while it only pertains to marriage.

1st Cor. 7 chap. 13 and 14: "And if any woman have a husband that believeth not, and he consent to live with her, let her not put away her husband. For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the believing wife and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the believing husband. Otherwise your children should be unclean but now they are holy."

The church militant is composed of creatures and the flesh is weak in deed, none knowing whether they be worthy of love or hatred and as to the world's opinion it matters not. The world crucified our Lord and why should it say what I must do to serve God. To serve God renounce the world and all its pride.
A true christian can and may go any where with a hope to admonish the sinner. Our Saviour Himself entered into hell not because it was necessary, but to give us an example of duty, to instruct the ignorant, and counsel the doubtful at all times and in all places.

Again Brother D. says that it is against the rules of most of the churches in this country for their members to get drunk, falsify, gamble, or break the Sabbath.
Now, Brother D., is it not a fact that it is against the rules of God's church, or churches, as you wish, for any one affiliating with it to do or say any of these; or if there is a church on earth that such is not against its ruling? I would like to know its name. As to turning a man out of church for a wrong done, is not christian, for God is mercy and instead of turning the sinner away, asks him to repent and nowhere has He given man power to lift from man the baptism of penance. This He gave to each one of us, for "as often as man asks, God will forgive," as put by our divine Saviour.
Sin is written against us, and like sand, when a wind comes it is blown away.
So as often as you repent and ask forgiveness, so as often will God forgive.
For he hath said the heart is perverse above all things and unsearchable. Who can know it? "I am the Lord who searcheth the heart and prove the reins; who gives to every man according to his way, and according to the fruits of his device." So in conclusion I will say, let him not who is houseless pull down the house of another, but let him labor diligently and build one for himself.

BROTHER A. AND SISTER B.
Guston, Ky.

Cancer Of the Face.

Mrs. Laura E. Mims, of Dawson, Ga., says: "A small pimple of a strawberry color appeared on my cheek; it soon began to grow rapidly, notwithstanding all efforts to check it. My eye became terribly inflamed, and was so swollen that for quite a while I could not see. The doctors said I had Cancer of the most malignant type, and after exhausting their efforts without doing me any good, they gave up the case as hopeless. When in the same disease, they said I must die, as hereditary Cancer was incurable."
"At this crisis, I was advised to try S.S.S., and in a short while the Cancer began to discharge and continued to do so for three months, then it began to heal. I continued the medicine a while longer until the Cancer disappeared entirely. This was several years ago and there has been no return of the disease."

FALLS OF ROUGH.

Miss Mary Peyton visited Glendene
last week.

Mr. Leslie Brack was the guest of Miss Bell Davison Sunday.

Mrs. John Day, of Rock Vale, has been quiet ill for some time.

Mr. Harl and daughter are the guests of Mrs. Kittie Davison.

Dr. Dempster is very much improved in health we are glad to hear.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Adams spent the holidays with relatives in Cloverport.

Mrs. Smith Quartermore entertained her young friends Thursday evening.

Mr. Hardin Porter stopped with Mr. M.
W. Stone, while working with his logs
last week.

Mr. M. W. Stone delivered to Dr.
Dempster some nice net pork at a good price, last week.

Mr. Robert Chambliss and Miss Zilpah Chambliss were the guests of Miss Cora Wingate, Sunday.

Letters from Chicago state that the ice harvesters are putting up ice off of the lake a foot thick.

Several families at this place had to move out of their houses on account of the high water.

The hard winds of last week unroofed a big barn and shed on Lank Fontress place, also blew down a lot of fencing.

The floods have receded and navigation is resumed with as much yim and energy as though there is no mud to impede progress.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Howard, of Rock Vale, entertained quiet a number of youths and maidens to supper a few evenings past.

Col. Green, Robert Chambliss, of this place, John Dean and Jesse Moorman, of Glendene, went to Hardinsburg on business last week.

Col. Green lost one of his Shetland ponies the other day, while herding them, one of them fell over an embankment and broke its neck, dying instantly.

Oh, ye Harbalds of spring! why sleep-eth thou? Why this blustering wind? winter has surely flown, for Mr. Crit Burton was seen breaking up corn ground by a neighbor, during the recent down pour of rain.

Miss Mary Peyton, on account of the mud and so much rain, was compelled to discontinue her studies at Glendene, but she has a nice little class at home while she is teaching with much credit to herself and pupils.

Mr. Hardin Porter was so fortunate as to secure about eighty-three of his fine saw logs, which were in the creek near Goshen church. He got them rafted and brought them down near the mouth of Rock Lick during the recent high water.

Mr. W. H. Chambliss has secured the services of Prof. Burnet to teach his children. Mr. Burnet is a graduate in Music, Latin, Greek and seems to be an able teacher and those who wish a teacher thoroughly qualified, should patronize him, for really he is a talented man.

Messrs Jones and Cooper, with banjo and violin, spent Friday evening at Mr.
W. H. Chambliss'. Sweet music sped the hours away pleasantly. The other guests were Miss Cora Wingate, little Jennie Stone, Messrs. John Eskridge, Robert and David Chambliss.

News reaches me to-day that Miss Nannie J. Green is just married, though I did not learn the particulars. My dear teacher may your path through life be strewn with sweetest flowers and flooded with brightest sunshine of love and happiness is the wish of a former pupil.

Croup, the great enemy of childhood, succumbs at once to the soothing influence of Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey.
Bronchial affections lose their danger when this great remedy is at hand. No home should be without it.

Prepared in Bunches.

Frankfort, Ky. Jan. 29.—The Franklin county grand jury reconvened after a week's rest, during which, it is said, the commonwealth's attorney has prepared indictments by the bunch against the corporations of the state for failure to report.

Destroyed by Fire.

Somerset, Ky. Jan. 29.—Fire destroyed three business blocks. The loss is about $50,000; insurance, $40-600.

There are three little things which do more work than any other three little things created—they are the ant, the bee and DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills for stomach and liver trouble.—Short &amp
